GOV. CREEL'S PLAN.

Question of the Liquor Problem Along New Lines.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 26.—A special to the Express from Chihuhua, Mexico, says:

Governor Creel says that as soon as more pressing matters are disposed of he may take up the question of the liquor problem along the lines of the Gotchenberg system as proposed by him when he was acting governor two years ago.

In brief, this comprises a quasi-philanthropic corporation to take over, one by one, or as rapidly as possible, the saloons of the state, close many of them and conduct the others under strict regulations and on such a plane as will conduce to temperance and morality.

The profits of the company, it was then proposed, will be limited to six per cent on the capital invested, all above that being devoted to public service or some other cause.

Owing to the amount of other business on hand, the governor has as yet done nothing toward carrying the plan into effect, but he has always been a worker for temperance and has accomplished much in regulating the traffic; reducing the number of saloons, closing them half a day on Sundays, and at 10 o'clock at night.

HOSPITAL AND SCHOOLS.

Three New Institutions Promised Atlanta by Bishop Nelson.

Atlanta, Feb. 26.—Another hospital and two seminaries of collegiate grade—one for boys and one for girls—are to be established in Atlanta if plans being considered by Bishop C. K. Nelson are consummated, and the bishop thinks they will be.

This announcement of the prospect of a hospital and two schools for Atlanta under auspices of the Episcopal church was the notable feature of the celebration at St. Phillips cathedral of the sixteenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Nelson.

The anniversary service to commemorate the bishop's consecration was very impressive. The processional through the church by the choir and the many members of the clergy was probably the most impressive feature. There were present in the congregation many persons from Columbus, Griffin, Queens, Gainesville, Rome and other towns who came to Atlanta to attend the anniversary celebration.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The secretary of the treasury has announced a call upon national banks for approximately 25 per cent of the public funds now held in inactive depositories having on deposit such funds in the sum of $100,000 or more, and 25 per cent of the public funds now held by active depositories where the deposit is $100,000 of such funds, or in excess thereof, and where such withdrawal can be made without inconvenience to the treasury department in the transaction of public business. Under the call approximately $35,000,000 will be returned to the treasury.

Secretary Cortelyou stated that advices from all portions of the country are to the effect that this proportion of the government funds now on deposit with these national banks can be withdrawn without detriment to financial conditions in any section.

Judge Willingham was one of the eldest and richest citizens of Cumming. He was in former years judge of the inferior court, and later represented Forsyth county in the Georgia legislature.

MONARCHY DOOMED?

Portugal Seems on Eve of Violent Political Struggle.

FORCES PREPARE FOR BATTLE

Whether or Not a Republic Is To Supplant the Monarchy, It Is Conceded That Portugal Is Soon to Witness Stormy Times.

Lisbon, Feb. 26.—Whether or not a republic is soon to supplant the monarchy in Portugal, it is practically the unanimous opinion here that the near future will witness a violent political struggle in which the life of the monarchy may be the stake.

The comparative tranquility since the assassinations is simply a breathing spell in which the forces of the monarchy on the one hand and popular government on the other are being marshaled for the coming fray, the battlefield of which will be Lisbon.

The masses of the people in the country are ignorant and have hitherto been entirely indifferent to the political battles which have convulsed the capital. Lisbon for political purposes is Portugal, and the republicans are confident that the influence of the capital, which they assert is almost unanimously republican, will sound the knell of the monarchy.

Will Make Open Campaign.

Since the assassinations of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luiz, the republicans have been joined by the dissident progressists and they intend to make their campaign for a change of regime openly in the coming electoral contest. Ex-Deputy Almeida, who is at the head of the republican organization, declares that their campaign has virtually been made for them by the revelation of the scandalous abuses of the old parties. The exposure of the political corruption, the manner in which an army of clients was maintained at the expense of the public treasury, and above all, the secret advances made to the royal family, he claims, shocked the people from one end of the country to the other and destroyed the prestige of the monarchy.

Expect an Easy Victory.

They anticipate an easy and complete victory. Disinterested opinion, however, does not consider Portugal ripe for a republic; it believes in fact, that the country, under a popular regime in the present backward state of the masses would become a prey of the ambitions of the politicians, and like the Central American republics, would be without stability. Nevertheless, the fear exists in these quarters that the monarchy is doomed.

Course of Young King.

The young king, Manuel, undoubtedly with best of intentions, has yielded to the enemies of his father's failure and France. They have persuaded him to sponge out the dictatorship and to begin as a strictly constitutional sovereign, but, above all, to place himself in their hands. They want him to enact the role of Dom Luis, the father of Carlos, who, for twenty years, reigned over Portugal but did not govern.

Under the present circumstances the course of the king is dangerous, inasmuch as he has placed the destinies of the throne in the hands of the leaders of the two discredited old parties, men whose past prevents them from meeting their adversaries in the open field of political discussion, and who the people will insist must be disciplined.

One act of repression will entail another. The cry will be raised that reaction has come and an explosion will be inevitable. In this event the throne may be compelled to establish a second dictatorship.

BULL FIGHT FOR SAILORS.

Officers and Men of American Fleet Witness Exciting Contest.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 26.—Ten thousand spectators, more than half of whom were officers and men of the American fleet, witnessed a thrilling bull fight Monday afternoon.

President Pardo and his staff occupied the royal box, and the adjoining boxes were filled with the higher officers of the visiting warships. Society, too, was prominently represented, and the spectacle, from start to finish, was not soon to be forgotten. The dangers of bull fighting were graphically illustrated, for the first bull in the ring tossed the chief matador and disabled him from further work. The fifth bull gored the throat of the second matador and he was carried bleeding to his quarters. It is not likely that he can survive.

The spectacle of officers in uniform, ladies in gorgeous gowns and picture hats, as though attired for some afternoon reception, and thousands of sailors gathered around the ring, was a brilliant one and during the fighting with the bulls the enthusiasm was unbounded.

"DISGUSTING" MATTER GOES.

Certain Sort of Post Cards Not Barred from Mails.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The bill to revise the criminal code of the United States was passed by the committee of the whole of the senate Monday, and was ordered reprinted with amendments so that it might be put upon its passage.

An amendment proposed by the postoffice department prohibiting the sending of postal cards with "disgusting" matter displayed on them through the mails was voted down.

Senator Bailey said some people are "disgusted" by things that do not "disgust" other people, and he thought the word placed too many restrictions on the mail service.

FELL TO HIS DEATH.

New York, Feb. 26.—Falling seventy feet over the cliff in Morningside Park, Harlem, Monday, James F. S. Droogan, twelve years old, struck the sidewalk below and was instantly killed. Young Droogan, with several other boys, was engaged in a snowball battle on the top of the old revolutionary blockhouse known as Fort Hyatt, which abutts the edge of the cliff.

Droogan, running close to the ledge, slipped and went over. The boy's father, Joseph Droogan, immediately notified, carried the bruised body of his son to his home two blocks distant.

Proposes Unique Bill.

New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 26.—Senator Wilson, of Atlantic county, hopes to have the state legislature pass a bill which will give marble cutters' mechanics liens on tombstones which they may cut. Unless it is paid for, the maker of a tombstone will be permitted to go into the cemetery where the stone is erected and remove it and make it over for any one he sees fit.

Fire at Elberton.

Elberton, Ga., Feb. 26.—Three residences here were burned to the ground about 9 o'clock Sunday night. Insurance on buildings was $2,000 and on furniture $500.

LEO WAS MARKED MAN

Martyred Priest Object of Vengeance of Anarchists.

PLOT WAS LAID TO KILL HIM

Dead Priest Was Formerly Stationed At Paterson, N. J., and It Is Believed He May Have Incurred "Reds" Enmity While There.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 26.—In the reblessing of St. Elizabeth's church on Monday, rendered necessary by the assassination at the altar on Sunday of Father Leo by Guiseppe Alio, not only were prayers raised for the purification of the temple and the protection of the edifice from any further desecration, but supplication was also made on behalf of the assassin that he might be caused to repent of his rash deed. This most impressive ceremony was witnessed by but few people. It consumed more than an hour, and at its conclusion, Father Phillips announced that St. Elizabeth's could again be opened for service.

Incurred Anarchist Enmity.

Most of the priests of the Roman Catholic church in this city believe that Father Leo Heinrichs was a marked man from the time he arrived in town last August or even before. The dead priest was stationed previously in Paterson, N. J., and it is believed that he may have incurred the enmity of the anarchists there and that a plot was laid to kill him, perhaps prior to his leaving Paterson, but that the machinery of the "reds" failed to get into running order until Alio carried out orders.

A woman who witnessed the tragedy told a prominent Catholic priest that two weeks ago, during an early mass, she saw two evil-appearing men, one of whom she believes was the assassin, standing in the aisle of St. Elizabeth's church. They were conversing in a low tone, but she saw one of the men point to two priests who were in the sanctuary. The priests, one of whom was Father Leo, were separated several feet, and the man who did the pointing directed his finger toward Father Leo and remarked in a low tone: "That's the man."

Made Deep Impression.

The woman thought it strange that the two men should hold a conversation in the church, and this, together with their ruffian-like appearance, made a deep impression upon her. When she saw the assassin running down the aisle Sunday, she declares she immediately recognized him as theman to whom Father Leo had been pointed out.

The police are working on the conspiracy theory and hunting for two strange men thought to have been accomplices of Alio.

Public funeral services were held on Wednesday.

FATHER LEO'S SLAYER.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Feb. 26.—Guiseppe Alio, the anarchist who shot and killed Father Leo Heinrichs at Denver, says that he was moved to kill the priest by the ringing of the church bells, which reminded him of his home in Sicily, which he says was wrested from him by the church.

It appears from statements made by the murderer, that while living in Italy he was expelled from the church because of his anarchistic teachings and that his wife then left him.

Her desertion further enraged him against the church and the priests, and when he heard the church bells ringing Sunday morning he decided to go out and kill one priest at least, and more if he could.

The murderer said he was born in Avalon, Sicily, Aug. 10, 1857. He said he went to Buenos Ayres in 1905, and that the revolver with which he killed Father Leo was purchased there. He arrived in New York city on May 22, 1907, and left for Kansas the following August. After working forty-three days as a section hand at Wills, Kans., he went to Denver on Nov. 9, 1907. Since that time he had worked but little.

BAD NEGRO SHOT WOMAN IN THIGH

Mocked Woman's Dead Father, Then Inflicted Serious Wound.

THE PEOPLE WERE INDIGNANT

When They Learned the Facts in the Case, and the Negro, Tony Bosby, After Being Arrested and Placed in Micanopy Jail, Was Brought Here.

A most uncalled-for tragedy occurred at Evinston Saturday, from the result of which a colored woman, the name of whom could not be learned, lies in a critical condition at her home with an ugly bullet wound in her thigh, and the man who inflicted it, Tony Bosby, is now peeping from behind the bars of the Alachua county jail, having been brought here to save him from the wrath of the people of that section, who are indignant over the episode of the negro man.

From the information obtainable, it appears that Bosby, who was evidently under the influence of something stronger than sweetened water, went to the woman's house, uninvited, and began mocking the woman's dead father, who had some peculiarities, in a most sarcastic manner. The woman reprimanded him, it is said, when he pulled an ugly-looking gun and deliberately shot the woman, the ball entering the right thigh.

Tosby was arrested and lodged in the town jail at Micanopy, but it is said that feeling was so high in the community it was thought best to transfer him to the county prison for safe-keeping. A spirit of general indignation prevails among those who have familiarized themselves with the facts.

Bosby was brought to Gainesville in custody of Marshal Chrisman of Micanopy yesterday.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Remember The Sun office when you want anything in the printing line.

W. J. Sheridan, formerly of this city but now of Ocala, where he is engaged in concrete paving work, returned to his home yesterday, after a brief business visit here. Mr. Sheridan was foreman of concrete work here for several months.

A. Wilkins and little son, Owen B., were in the city from Hague yesterday, and while here made The Sun an agreeable call. Mr. Wilkins has for some time been holding a responsible position with the Camp Phosphate Company at Dunnellon, but recently resigned that position to accept a situation with the Prairie Pebble Phosphate Company, with headquarters at Mulberry, and will leave the first of the coming week for that place. For the present his family will remain at Hague.

Among the clever young traveling men in this city is H. S. Wilson of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is representing the Cameron Steam Pump Works, New York. This is Mr. Wilson's first visit to Florida, which is naturally quite a novel trip to him. He spent yesterday afternoon in taking in the city, which he declares to be one of the prettiest, "most romantic" little cities he has ever seen. He is greatly impressed with the majestic oaks, festooned with moss, and other tropical foliage.

Deceased was sixty-two years of age, having been born in Alabama, March 1, 1845. CATARRH IS CURABLE.

Successful Experiments in Abating and Curing This Disease.

Catarrh is an entirely unnecessary disease and should not be tolerated for a single day now that Hyomei is so generally known and has made so many cures in Gainesville and other towns.

Modern science has disproved the old theory that catarrh was a blood disease. It is a germ trouble, and the remedy is Hyomei, which medicates the air you breathe, killing all catarrhal germs.

As there is life and health in the air of the pine forests, filled with fragrant and healing balsams, so there is life and health in breathing Hyomei.

So sure is this prescription to cure even the worst cases of catarrh, that J. W. McCollum & Co. sell it under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

ALACHUA COUNTY IS AWARDED BIG PRIZE

Recognized by Judges as Leading County of Middle Florida.

CREDIT TO MANAGER TENCH

It Was Almost Solely Through His Energy and Efforts That the Display Was Secured, and, Unaided and Alone, He Worked Up Fine Exhibit.

The people of Gainesville and Alachua county congratulate Fair Commissioner and Manager of Exhibits John W. Tench, through the energy of whom Alachua county was awarded a prize of $500 for having the best display of any county in Middle Florida at the State Fair. The prizes were awarded by a board of competent judges, after a most careful investigation and study, and it was decided that Alachua was entitled to the prize from this section of the State.

Manager Tench is to be all the more congratulated, by reason of the fact that he went at this venture single-handed and alone, having no financial assistance from the Board of County Commissioners, or from any public source. All who saw the exhibit, which was of principally an agricultural nature, but diversified in his line, declared before the prizes were awarded that if this display did not receive a reward it would not be because of lack of interest and hard work of those who had it in charge, or because the exhibit was not deserving. The manager and his assistants are to be congratulated for their successful efforts in this direction, especially with no encouragement from public sources.

There were many features noticeable in the Alachua county exhibit which were conspicuous for their absence in other county displays, notably among which were the Sea Island cotton and hay. Of the latter there were a large number of bales of native-grown, embracing thirteen varieties, which attracted the admiration of visitors from every section. There were also striking displays of fruit and minerals.

The total number of points awarded Alachua on the various exhibits was 96.

In addition to the county prize of $500, Alachua county was awarded $200 for the largest and best display of agricultural products, $200 for the largest and best display of cotton, and $200 for the lagest and best display of poultry, making a total of $1,100 in county prizes. Major Tench was awarded individual prizes of $100 for the largest and best display of poultry and $100 for the largest and best display of cotton. Diplomas were also awarded with each of the prizes.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S CONCERT.

Excerpts from Mr. Cadwallader's New Opera Highly Pleasing.

Gainesville's musical abilities are beyond question. The tremendous success that attended the rendering of selections from the opera written by Mr. W. E. Cadwallader, one of our esteemed citizens, and entitled "The Schemers," put Gainesville to the forefront of the Florida cities so far as its musical standing is concerned. The local talent responsible for the rendition of the various numbers deserves the highest possible praise, while the chorus work showed the result of careful and able training on the part of Mr. Cadwallader. The orchestra work was especially fine and was handled with an accuracy and a precision that was particularly noticeable in the first number, "The Finale," from the second act of the opera. The suggestion has come from a number of directions that a large orchestra be organized in the city with a view of rendering the music of "The Schemers," which in parts is scored for eleven principals and chorus; for without having heard the second act "Finale" (the first number of Tuesday night's program), with all the voices for which it calls, one could form no real idea of the she of it nor of the assistance required from instruments, and it is so diversified, running from light into very heavy and almost classical passages, that the effect shown by the three instruments but mildly intimated what this number could be made. The three-quarter passage is especially attractive, and is undoubtedly the most masterly in the work.

The solo work of Miss Goode should indeed be a source of gratification to herself, as well as one of pride to Gainesville and her citizens. Miss Goode has grown up among us, and after having spent but a short time in the Conservatory at Cincinnati has developed a remarkably good voice. From middle to high C her tones compare favorably with that of the best light opera singers, and while the lower notes have not shown the same proportionate improvement, there is every reason to believe that when she returns to her work these will be brought out fully as well. The number from "Carmen" is the biggest soprano air in this wonderful opera, and generally admitted as being one of the biggest soprano airs in the operatic world. Tosti's "My Dreams" went very well, but from an artistic point of view it was not as good as her first number. Her encore song was very well done.

"In Dreamland," a selection from "The Schemers," by Mrs. W. S. Prindle and Mr. W. M. Dale, was especially fine, and their work was much appreciated by the audience. While Mr. Dale's hoarseness prevented his doing himself full justice and required his being relieved from a later number, this selection went well.

The solo numbers by Mrs. Prindle came in for a big share of praise, the best of which was "Asthore."

Dr. Geo. S. Waldo, while a newcomer among us, contributed a large share to the evening's enjoyment. His singing showed finish as a result of an operatic career. He is a valuable acquisition to the musical club.

The number that might be said to have brought down the house was "The Fickle Star," from "The Schemers," with Lieut. L. R. Ball and Mrs. W. S. Prindle as principals, and the chorus off stage. This air goes with a rush and swing that will naturally fasten itself to the whistling proclivities of the average hearer. It is one of those songs that one cannot help but whistle after having heard it, which is one of the best commendations for light opera.

"The Greatest Old Rag," with Lieut. L. R. Ball, and the male chorus, was probably the best concerted number from a musical standpoint on the program. This shows what proper harmonization can effect, and the result can be imagined when such a principal and chorus clad in military fashion and set as laid down in the score of the opera would produce.

The large audience that attended the concert speaks well for Gainesville, and it is to be hoped that the Gainesville Musical and Dramatic Club will feel sufficiently encouraged in their work to repeat these occasions at frequent intervals during the year.

While considerable difficulty was experienced with the lantern, there was no difficulty with the subject matter and illustrations of Lieut. Ball's talk on the Russo-Japanese war. It was apparently especially enjoyed by the male part of the audience. It had several little illustrations of the "water wagon" that seemed to cause considerable merriment.

Owing to the extreme hoarseness of Mr. Dayton, and the unfortunate noise of the rain on the roof at the time of his number, he was unable to finish his part and be heard.

The number in which Mr. Cadwallader was called on to assist Miss Goode in place of Mr. Dale, "The Drawbacks of Love," showed that Mr. Cadwallader's capabilities were not limited to the work of composing as comprehensive an opera as "The Schemers," but he also possessed the ability and voice to step in and sing the tenor parts without preparation. This number, when the opera is produced, would compare favorably with the usual duet which the leading soprano and tenor have in nearly every light opera.

From the excerpts of "The Schemers" it would seem that the opera in its entirety might be entitled to a place on the light opera stage of the metropolitan cities.

The Twice-a-Week Sun is an eight-page, forty-column paper, published every Monday and Thursday, and contains all the news of the week, local, State and general, and will be mailed, postage free, to any part of the United States or Canada, for $1.00 a year—in advance.

All advertising bills become due after first appearance of advertisement, unless otherwise stipulated in contract. Parties not known to us will be required to pay for advertising in advance. Address, THE DAILY SUN,
GAINESVILLE, FLA.

The day's ads. are the "business barometer"—forecasting, to the practiced eye, the business activities for the ensuing 24 hours.

You will be somewhat ashamed of having once talked about "bad luck" after you have become an advertiser—for a prospering man rarely believes in "luck" at all!

What a lot of "good fellows" there will be around during the next ninety days. It shore do improve a man's manners to become a candidate for office.—Lakeland News.

The New York sun says the Federal officeholders are the linchpin of the Republican party in the South. Isn't it a fact that there is nothing to the Republican organization here but the "linchpin" and the negro?

If you have employment to offer, a "Help Wanted" ad. will place you in touch with everyone in the city—with the highly competent, the competent, the less competent—who might be "eligible" for the job.

Governor Sparks has appointed a carpenter as inspector of Nevada's new State police. His friends say, however, that it is not to be inferred from this that the Governor intends to build up a wooden force.

The "logical buyer"—the one to whom your property would be a bargain even at its "top price"—is an elusive person, and sometimes it requires persistent advertising to find him, and his attention to your proposition.

Congressman Haugen of Iowa has just discovered after serving over eight years in Congress that the wire trust is plundering the farmers. It takes a long time for Republicans to find out that the tariff protects the trusts.

The "Grand Old Party" has evidently seen its best days, for the factional fights and the breakdown of prosperity has made the Republican elephant look lean and worried, quite different from its former appearance of complacent prosperity.

About the best way to get a certain worthy official to enter the race for re-election is for certain people to continue intimating that he is afraid to announce his own candidacy. And you can rest assured that if he does go into the fight he will be a hard man to beat.

Word comes from Washington that J. Pierpont Morgan, the Wall Street financier, has joined the Taft boomers, but of course all the Wall Street financiers will be for whoever the Republicans nominate, though in the meantime they may cuss Teddy as a bungler of prosperity.

The Times-Union of last Sunday was a mammoth edition of 48 pages, being designated the "Greater Jacksonville Industrial Edition and Exposition Number." The first page was handsomely illustrated and the four sections were filled with interesting matter on subjects appropriate to the title of the edition. The Sun congratulates Editor Wilson and his staff upon the great success of the enterprise.

TRIBUTE TO MR. FLAGLER.

The Springfield (Ohio) Gazette pays the following neat and well-deserved tribute to Mr. Henry M. Flagler:

"Henry M. Flagler is one of the Standard Oil crowd who cannot be accused of using his money for his own aggrandizement, as the railway across the Florida keys, which is rapidly approaching completion, will testify.

"Although Mr. Flagler has arrived at the age when a man of his wealth would be expected to be enjoying life, instead of risking his immense fortune in an enterprise that was declared at its inception to be a chimerical one, to say the least. But with a degree of foresight far beyond that with which he was credited, he saw that coming generations would find use for just such a line as he proposed to construct, and laughing at the pessimistic critics, who said it could not be done, staked his fortune on the venture, and has already demonstrated that he knew what he was about when he said he would build a railroad over the sea.

"The part this road will play in the commerce of the world when the Panama canal is completed is but conjectural at this time, as no man can tell the possibilities of such a line when the southern seaports become the important centers they will become when the big ditch is ready to play its part in the transmission of commerce from the Western to the Eastern hemisphere and vice versa. But one thing is sure, and that is that Mr. Flagler's railroad will be ready to take advantage of every opportunity, due to the foresight of a man who, by all precedents, should have been long past the age at which men undertake enterprises of moment at the time he first conceived the idea that a railroad over the Florida keys was possible.

"Mr. Rockefeller has used portions of his immense wealth to endow colleges. Mr. Rogers has staked his fortune on the Tidewater railroad in West Virginia, but he is of an age that will not prevent him from reaping a rich reward before he dies, but Mr. Flagler has reached such an age that he cannot hope to secure adequate returns on the money he has invested before death calls him, and this, coupled with the fact that he already had as much money as any man ought to want, makes it apparent that he builded with other generations in view.

"Taking all of these things into consideration, it is evident that this country owes Mr. Flagler a debt of gratitude, the magnitude of which only time can divulge."

A prominent lawyer remarked to the editor one day this week that if Ex-Governor Jennings' pleadings are correct (for which he is paid $5,000 a year from the Internal Improvement Fund), then the compromise made by the I. I. Trustees with the L. & N. Railroad Company is a damnable outrage on the people of Florida. He says the matter should have been fought out in the courts, and that neither the Ex-Governor or the present administration are entitled to any credit for such a compromise as they have made. The same lawyer also voiced the sentiment of a great many people in this section when he said that he thought the Ex-Governor exhibited considerable "gall" in asking the people of Florida to elect him National Committeeman; that the Democrats of Florida were doing enough for W. J. Bryan in sending a delegation to Denver to vote for him, without electing his cousin National Committeeman to "dish" out the offices in case of Mr. Bryan's election as President.

A LESSON FOR ADVERTISERS.

As an instance of the value of newspaper advertising to increase or force trade, the following facts are remarkable. During December the orders received by the Douglas Boot and Shoe Company of Brockton, Mass., fell off in consequence of the business depression following the panic. The advertising manager of that large concern mentioned the matter to Governor Douglas and asked his advice, whether under the circumstances they should place the usual amount of advertising during January and February, which are usually the slowest months in the year in the shoe business. Governor Douglas at once ordered an increase of 30 per cent in the amount appropriated for advertising, declaring that such an increase would help to overcome the unfavorable business outlook. There was considerable skepticism about the result among the principle employes of the Douglas company. But the result showed almost an immediate improvement in business, which is now averaging more than last year during these unusually dull months.

Thus the business sagacity of Governor Douglas has overcome the hard times, and his optimism has proven an antidote to the Republican panic.

The advertising manager of Governor Douglas explains the phenomenon of increased sales, when by all the rules of business there should have been a decrease, as entirely produced by the increased advertising. Other advertisers of shoes were drawing in their horns and many of their former customers were induced to patronize the Douglas Shoe Company because it was more than ever brought to their notice.

Persistent advertising pays, for last year nearly 8,000 newspapers carried the Douglas advertisement, and the profits of the business were larger than ever.

Decision in Tax Case.

Washington, Feb. 26.—That the residents of Sewanee, Franklin county, Tennessee, are not exempt from state taxation under their leases from the University of the South, which is located at that town, was held in an opinion by Justice Peckham, of the supreme court of the United States, in the case of the county of Franklin against the university. The opinion reversed the decision of the United States circuit court for the middle district of Tennessee, which held the law unconstitutional.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalency of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original Disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

The two banks of Laurel Hill have been consolidated.

A Church Club has been organized in Fort Pierce with a large membership.

The Pensacola Mardi Gras celebration holds forth next week, beginning Monday, March 2nd.

The Florida Female College at Tallahassee reports the enrollment of thirty for the spring term for teachers.

It is estimated that $12,000 to $15,000 per month is paid out at the little town of Bowling Green for phosphate labor.

Bowling Green is soon to enjoy the advantages derived from a live, up-to-date bank, as a State bank is soon to be organized with $20,000 capital.

Bradentown has taken a step forward. The town council has decided to prohibit the running of cattle, horses and hogs in the streets.

Mrs. Angelina Ferine has brought suit for $20,000 damages against the Pensacola Electric Company. The suit is brought on account of the death of Peter Ferine, son of the plaintiff, who was electrocuted about six months ago while in the employ of the company. The suit is based upon alleged negligence and carelessness of the defendant.

An artesian well is now being driven at Key Vacas, which is about the center of the Key West extension, and if the well is successful the key will be made the head of a great waterworks system. The work is in charge of a Government expert on artesian wells. At the present all water has to be ferried by tank steamers and tank cars from Manatee and Jewish Creek, the only points along the entire line where fresh water is obtainable.

A young man, N. E. Amsden, a tourist, had a hearing in the mayor's court this morning on the charge of disorderly conduct. The evidence disclosed that while the young man, with other company, was walking along the street-car tracks, near the electric plant, he came to a switch in the track, and, as he testified, "just from curiosity, I stooped down and lifted up the lever and put it down again. I didn't put it down close. It looked as though there was an inch or more space. I didn't know whether the switch was to go clear up or not, and I walked on. Did it purely out of curiosity." There appeared to be no malicious intent, the case being one in which the man's idle curiosity got the better of his good sense, which, however, did not lessen the liability to serious accident, and possible injury to passengers who might come along on the next car. He was found guilty of the charge and fined $5 and costs.—St. Petersburg Independent.

The Treasury Department has made Knight's Key a sub-port of entry, and a deputy collector of customs has been appointed to go there and take charge of the customs office. The State Board of Health, the Marine Hospital Service and the Immigration Service must also send representatives there. These together with the steamship agent, express agent, telegraph operators and necessary dock laborers will make Knight's Key quite a settlement. Necessarily there will be an opening there for a good restaurant, a small store and many other things. A few years hence Knight's Key will be a city. It is in the very heart of the fishing district and it will furnish many attractions for tourists. There will, of course, be a demand for a tourist hotel, and no doubt one will be built before next season. At present preparations are being made to use one of the large houseboats to accommodate the tourists who desire to stay over there.—Key West Citizen.

RHEUMATISM

BLOOD FILLED WITH URIC ACID

Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the different muscles, nerves, bones and tissues of the body, and produces the inflammation and swelling of the joints and the sharp, cutting pains characteristic of the disease. When the blood is overburdened with uric acid it continually grows weaker and more acrid, and poorer in nourishing qualities. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic, and not only a painful, but a formidable and dangerous disease. Sometimes the heart is attacked, the general health is affected, and the oils and fluids which lubricate the muscles and joints are destroyed by the acrid matter which the blood is constantly depositing in them; the muscles shrink and lose their elasticity, the coating of the joints becomes hard and thick, and often the sufferer is left a hopeless cripple. S. S. S. attacks the disease at its head, goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing and removing the uric acid from the circulation and building up the thin, acrid blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. changes the sour, acid-burdened blood to a rich, healthy stream which quiets the excited nerves, eases the throbbing, painful muscles and joints, and filters out of the system the irritating matter which is causing the pain and inflammation. Begin the use of S. S. S. now and get the cause out of your blood so that the cold and dampness of Winter will not keep you in constant pain and misery. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

Cotton Letter.

New York, Feb. 26.—The issuance of a bullish statement on the cotton crop and world's requirements by Mr. Price was the signal for somewhat of a sensational advance in the cotton market today.

The market opened easy at about five points below yesterday's close, but the news that Liverpool was buying started shorts to covering, and the market responded readily under renewed buying by the bull clique. Much of the old-time snap was notable throughout the day's trading and the market advanced steadily until within a few minutes of the close, when profit-taking by the ring traders caused a slight recession, and the market closed barely steady at a net advantage of about 20 points, which was within five points of the highest. Midland uplands were quoted at an advance of ten points at 11:45. Liverpool is due 6 to 7 points higher tomorrow, and if the English market meets this advance we expect prices to go some higher. What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels, (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in affecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what score: of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

The train was running at about 15 miles an hour over a bad section of road when the engine was derailed. The tender turned over, as did a deadhead baggage car, postal car, regular baggage car and combination baggage and passenger car.

None of the passengers were injured, but it was reported that Pope Culberson, the express messenger, was bruised, but able to continue his trip.

CODY PRAISES PRESIDENT.

His Interest in Forest and Game Preserves Commended.

New York, Feb. 26.—Praise for President Roosevelt for his active interest in forest and game preserves was a feature of the speech delivered by William F. Cody at the fourteenth annual dinner Sunday to the guides, trappers, hunters and officials of the sportsmen show, now in progress in Madison Square Garden.

Game in the Wyoming forest reserves was more plentiful than ten years ago, chief credit for this condition, Colonel Cody said, being due to the president. He favored forest protection, if for nothing else than as a means of game protection, for if the forests were destroyed, he said, the game would speedily be exterminated.

THIRTY PASSENGERS HURT.

Excursion Train Goes Into the Ditch Near Laredo, Tex.

Laredo, Tex., Feb. 26—Thirty persons are reported to have been injured in the derailment of an excursion train carrying a number of northern tourists at Orville, twelve miles north of Laredo.

Several cars were thrown from the track and piled up in a ditch. The Pullman cars, however, remained on the rails. The excursionists, most of whom were from Toledo, O., were traveling under the direction of Chas. Gates, of Toledo.

The similarity in names at first gave rise to a report that the wrecked train was the special on which John W. Gates, the New York capitalist, has been traveling through the south It was learned, however, that the John W. Gates party arrived at Beaumont, Tex., Monday night.

In addition to the Toledo people on the wrecked train there were a number of passengers from Chicago and San Antonio. They had planned to make a tour through Mexico.

The derailment is said to have been caused by a broken axle on the loco motive.

THAT is the only kind we ever distilled and sold. That is why our whiskies sell over and over to the customer who was satisfied with the first order---and continues so---that is why we enjoy the confidence of thousands.

Whiskey is either pure or something else. We select all the grain carefully; use only pure water; age to full maturity in our own warehouses, and insist that our whiskies reach the customer in original packages. This protects us--protects the customer--safeguards our goods from invidious adulteration by middlemen.

Our whiskies have no equal for use in the sick room, being wholesome and tonicy to weak stomachs; they are the best to serve your friends, they will appreciate their purity and enjoy their rich mellow flavor. For Coughs and Colds

Nearly all other Cough Cures are constipating, especially those containing opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels. Contains no opiates.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

try the following delightful dessert:
1 cup English Walnut meats.
½ doz. figs, cut up fine.
1 pkg. package JELL-O, any flavor.
Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and just commencing to thicken stir in the figs and nuts. Serve with Whipped Cream. Delicious. The walnuts, figs and JELL-O can be bought at any good grocery. This makes enough dessert for a large family and is very economical.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

The Lucky "SWASTIKA"

Most every man and woman believes in an emblem of some kind or other that is supposed to bring "good luck." Some contend there is no such thing as luck, but this class is the exception and not the rule, as has been proven by the thousands who are now wearing the Swastika in pins, rings and buttons. The Swastika is said to bring long life, peace and prosperity to the wearer, and the cost is little in both silver and gold. Certain it is we have never heard anyone say they bring bad luck, and since it may bring good fortune, why not woo the shiftless old jade, Fate, and get a Swastika? 50c up.

EDUCATORS GATHER

Important Educational Convention at Washington.

SESSION LASTS THREE DAYS

More Than 2,000 Educators Are Attending the Convention of the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association.

Washington, Feb. 26.—More than 2,000 educators from all parts of the country gathered here Tuesday to attend the convention of the department of superintendence of the national educationad association. The convention will be in session three days and its general meetings will be held in the Metropolitan Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, while the associated bodies will be divided into "round tables," and held elsewhere. Seven co-ordinated societies will unite with the department of superintendence in the convention.

The social features will be the reception of President Roosevelt Wednesday at the White House, and a reception at the Corcoran gallery of art Thursday evening.

The first session of the national convention was called to order Tuesday by President Frank B. Cooper, superintendent of schools, Seattle, Wash., and greetings were extended by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Elmer B. Brown, United States commissioner of education, to which a response was made by F. Louis Solden, superintendent of the St. Louis public schools. "The Saving of Time and Energy in School Work," was the theme of discussion.

The afternoon program provided a symposium on "The Place of Industries in Public Education," with discussions.

RIOT AT WEDDING.

Knives, Bottles, Chairs and Tables Used in Free-For-All Fight.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Four men were stabbed in a manner that is likely to prove fatal, fifteen others, including a policeman, were severely and several others slightly injured in a riot between two factions of Polish celebrators early Tuesday morning. The fight marked the end of festivities in the saloon of Joseph Kuta.

The rioters were the guests at the wedding of Lee Choaski and Mary Wadya. The conflict had its origin in an old controversy between the two factions of Poles and a free-for-all fight, in which knives, beer bottles, chairs and tables were used, followed several quarrels which occurred early in the evening.

A riot call was sent in, and a strong force of police was sent to the saloon, where, after a severe fight, they succeeded in arresting twenty of the rioters. After being taken to the police station, John Wadya attempted to kill Stanley Wudasek, who had fainted from loss of blood, Wadya, however, fainted while struggling with two policemen.

The bride and groom were locked up in a cell, but were later released.

May Be Man Wanted.

Amarillo, Tex., Feb. 26.—A Paris, Tex., express agent has identified a man arrested by Sheriff Hughes at Shamrock, Tex., eighty miles east of this city, as A. E. Richmond, the missing express messenger who is charged with having stolen $5,000 in transit at Paris, last July, and for whose arrest a reward of $500 had been offered. The man, who was found living on a ranch near the Texas-Oklahoma line, was known at Shamrock as W. H. Brown.

Supposed Suicide Case.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Miss Grace White, twenty-six years of age, whose home is believed to have been in Michigan City, Ind., was found dead in her room in a down-town hotel early on Tuesday morning. It is thought the woman committed suicide. The police are searching for a young man by the name of W. P. Cosgrove, who they think can give some information concerning the young woman.

GOV. CREEL'S PLAN.

Question of the Liquor Problem Along New Lines.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 26.—A special to the Express from Chihuhua, Mexico, says:

Governor Creel says that as soon as more pressing matters are disposed of he may take up the question of the liquor problem along the lines of the Gotchenberg system as proposed by him when he was acting governor two years ago.

In brief, this comprises a quasi-philanthropic corporation to take over, one by one, or as rapidly as possible, the saloons of the state, close many of them and conduct the others under strict regulations and on such a plane as will conduce to temperance and morality.

The profits of the company, it was then proposed, will be limited to six per cent on the capital invested, all above that being devoted to public service or some other cause.

Owing to the amount of other business on hand, the governor has as yet done nothing toward carrying the plan into effect, but he has always been a worker for temperance and has accomplished much in regulating the traffic; reducing the number of saloons, closing them half a day on Sundays, and at 10 o'clock at night.

HOSPITAL AND SCHOOLS.

Three New Institutions Promised Atlanta by Bishop Nelson.

Atlanta, Feb. 26.—Another hospital and two seminaries of collegiate grade—one for boys and one for girls—are to be established in Atlanta if plans being considered by Bishop C. K. Nelson are consummated, and the bishop thinks they will be.

This announcement of the prospect of a hospital and two schools for Atlanta under auspices of the Episcopal church was the notable feature of the celebration at St. Phillips cathedral of the sixteenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Nelson.

The anniversary service to commemorate the bishop's consecration was very impressive. The processional through the church by the choir and the many members of the clergy was probably the most impressive feature. There were present in the congregation many persons from Columbus, Griffin, Athens, Gainesville, Rome and other towns who came to Atlanta to attend the anniversary celebration.

CALL FOR MONEY.

Treasury Secretary Issues Notice to National Banks.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The secretary of the treasury has announced a call upon national banks for approximately 25 per cent of the public funds now held in inactive depositories having on deposit such funds in the sum of $100,000 or more, and 25 per cent of the public funds now held by active depositories where the deposit is $100,000 of such funds, or in excess thereof, and where such withdrawal can be made without inconvenience to the treasury department in the transaction of public business. Under the call approximately $35,000,000 will be returned to the treasury.

Secretary Cortelyou stated that advices from all portions of the country are to the effect that this proportion of the government funds now on deposit with these national banks can be withdrawn without detriment to financial conditions in any section.

Death of Judge Willingham.

Cumming, Ga., Feb. 26.—Judge T. Willingham died at the residence of Mr. J. E. Kirby, in Cumming, Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the age of eighty-eight years. Judge Willingham was one of the oldest and richest citizens of Cumming. He was in former years judge of the inferior court, and later represented Forsyth county in the Georgia legislature.

Venable Bros Get Large Contract.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 26.—The contract for the granite to be used in the Atlanta public building was signed up Monday in Washington by Sam Venable of Atlanta, Ga., and H. B. Knox and Steadman, representing the McCaul company, of Philadelphia. The granite people agree to furnish at least 5,500 feet per month, but may deliver more.

MONARCHY DOOMED?

Portugal Seems on Eve of Violent Political Struggle.

FORCES PREPARE FOR BATTLE

Whether or Not a Republic Is To Supplant the Monarchy, It Is Conceded That Portugal Is Soon to Witness Stormy Times.

Lisbon, Feb. 26.—Whether or not a republic is soon to supplant the monarchy in Portugal, it is practically the unanimous opinion here that the near future will witness a violent political struggle in which the life of the monarchy may be the stake.

The comparative tranquility since the assassinations is simply a breathing spell in which the forces of the monarchy on the one hand and popular government on the other are being marshaled for the coming fray, the battlefield of which will be Lisbon.

The masses of the people in the country are ignorant and have hitherto been entirely indifferent to the political battles which have convulsed the capital. Lisbon for political purposes is Portugal, and the republicans are confident that the influence of the capital, which they assert is almost unanimously republican, will sound the knell of the monarchy.

Will Make Open Campaign.

Since the assassinations of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luiz, the republicans have been joined by the dissident progressists and they intend to make their campaign for a change of regime openly in the coming electoral contest. Ex-Deputy Almeida, who is at the head of the republican organization, declares that their campaign has virtually been made for them by the revelation of the scandalous abuses of the old parties. The exposure of the political corruption, the manner in which an army of clients was maintained at the expense of the public treasury, and above all, the secret advances made to the royal family, he claims, shocked the people from one end of the country to the other and destroyed the prestige of the monarchy.

Expect an Easy Victory.

They anticipate an easy and complete victory. Disinterested opinion, however, does not consider Portugal ripe for a republic; it believes in fact, that the country, under a popular regime in the present backward state of the masses would become a prey of the ambitions of the politicians, and like the Central American republics, would be without stability. Nevertheless, the fear exists in these quarters that the monarchy is doomed.

Course of Young King.

The young king, Manuel, undoubtedly with best of intentions, has yielded to the counsels of his father's intrigue and Franco. They have persuaded him to sponge out the dictatorship and to begin as a strictly constitutional sovereign, but, above all, to place himself in their hands. They want him to enact the role of Dom Luis, the father of Carlos, who, for twenty years, reigned over Portugal but did not govern.

Under the present circumstances the course of the king is dangerous, inasmuch as he has placed the destinies of the throne in the hands of the leaders of the two discredited old parties, men whose past prevents them from meeting their adversaries in the open field of political discussion, and who the people will insist must be disciplined.

One act of repression will entail another. The cry will be raised that reaction has come and an explosion will be inevitable. In this event the throne may be compelled to establish a second dictatorship.

BULL FIGHT FOR SAILORS.

Officers and Men of American Fleet Witness Exciting Contest.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 26.—Ten thousand spectators, more than half of whom were officers and men of the American fleet, witnessed a thrilling bull fight Monday afternoon.

President Pardo and his staff occupied the royal box, and the adjoining boxes were filled with the higher officers of the visiting warships. Society, too, was prominently represented, and the spectacle, from start to finish, was not soon to be forgotten. The dangers of bull fighting were graphically illustrated, for the first bull in the ring tossed the chief matador and disabled him from further work. The fifth bull gored the throat of the second matador and he was carried bleeding to his quarters. It is not likely that he can survive.

The spectacle of officers in uniform, ladies in gorgeous gowns and picture hats, as though attired for some afternoon reception, and thousands of sailors gathered around the ring, was a brilliant one and during the fighting with the bulls the enthusiasm was unbounded.

"DISGUSTING" MATTER GOES.

Certain Sort of Post Cards Not Barred from Mails.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The bill to revise the criminal code of the United States was passed by the committee of the whole of the senate Monday, and was ordered reprinted with amendments so that it might be put upon its passage.

An amendment proposed by the postoffice department prohibiting the sending of postal cards with "disgusting" matter displayed on them through the mails was voted down.

Senator Bailey said some people are "disgusted" by things that do not "disgust" other people, and he thought the word placed too many restrictions on the mail service.

FELL TO HIS DEATH.

New York, Feb. 26.—Falling seventy feet over the cliff in Morningside Park, Harlem, Monday, James F. S. Droogan, twelve years old, struck the sidewalk below and was instantly killed. Young Droogan, with several other boys, was engaged in a snowball battle on the top of the old revolutionary blockhouse known as Fort Hesin, which abutts the edge of the cliff.

Droogan, running close to the ledge, slipped and went over. The boy's father, Joseph Droogan, immediately notified, carried the bruised body of his son to his home two blocks distant.

Proposes Unique Bill.

New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 26.—Senator Wilson, of Atlantic county, hopes to have the state legislature pass a bill which will give marble-cutters' mechanics liens on tombstones which they may cut. Unless it is paid for, the maker of a tombstone will be permitted to go into the cemetery where the stone is erected and remove it and make it over for any one he sees fit.

LEO WAS MARKED MAN

Martyred Priest Object of Vengeance of Anarchists.

PLOT WAS LAID TO KILL HIM

Dead Priest Was Formerly Stationed At Paterson, N. J., and It Is Believed He May Have Incurred "Reds" Enmity While There.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 26.—In the re-blessing of St. Elizabeth's church on Monday, rendered necessary by the assassination at the altar on Sunday of Father Leo by Guiseppe Alio, not only were prayers raised for the purification of the temple and the protection of the edifice from any further desecration, but supplication was also made on behalf of the assassin that he might be caused to repent of his rash deed. This most impressive ceremony was witnessed by but few people. It consumed more than an hour, and at its conclusion, Father Phillips announced that St. Elizabeth's could again be opened for service.

Incurred Anarchist Enmity.

Most of the priests of the Roman Catholic church in this city believe that Father Leo Heinrichs was a marked man from the time he arrived in town last August or even before. The dead priest was stationed previously in Paterson, N. J., and it is believed that he may have incurred the enmity of the anarchists there and that a plot was laid to kill him, perhaps prior to his leaving Paterson, but that the machinery of the "reds" failed to get into running order until Alio carried out orders.

A woman who witnessed the tragedy told a prominent Catholic priest that two weeks ago, during an early mass, she saw two evil-appearing men, one of whom she believes was the assassin, standing in the aisle of St. Elizabeth's church. They were conversing in a low tone, but she saw one of the men point to two priests who were in the sanctuary. The priests, one of whom was Father Leo, were separated several feet, and the man who did the pointing directed his finger toward Father Leo and remarked in a low tone: "That's the man."

Made Deep Impression.

The woman thought it strange that the two men should hold a conversation in the church, and th's, together with their "ruffian-like appearance, made a deep impression upon her. When she saw the assassin running down the aisle Sunday, she declares she immediately recognized him as the man to whom Father Leo had been pointed out.

The police are working on the conspiracy theory and hunting for two strange men thought to have been accomplices of Alio.

Public funeral services were held on Wednesday.

FATHER LEO'S SLAYER.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Feb. 26.—Guiseppe Alio, the anarchist who shot and killed Father Leo Heinrichs at Denver, says that he was moved to kill the priest by the ringing of the church bells, which reminded him of his home in Sicily, which he says was wrested from him by the church.

It appears from statements made by the murderer, that while living in Italy he was expelled from the church because of his anarchistic teachings and that his wife then left him.

Her desertion further enraged him against the church and the priests, and when he heard the church bells ringing Sunday morning he decided to go out and kill one priest at least, and more if he could.

The murderer said he was born in Avalon, Sicily, Aug. 10, 1887. He said he went to Buenos Ayres in 1905, and that the revolver with which he killed Father Leo was purchased there. He arrived in New York city on May 31, 1907, and left for Kansas the following August. After working forty-three days as a section hand at Hills, Kans., he went to Denver on [illegible]

SAMPSON CITY HAD A TRAGEDY

J. L. Wynn Shot and Instantly Killed By His Son-In-Law.

THE ROW WAS OVER TOBACCO

Wynn Called His Son-in-Law Down for Smoking, and When the Latter Blew Smoke in His Face He Was Greatly Angered—Killing Followed.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Visitors to Gainesville Monday brought information of a most frightful tragedy at Sampson City at a late hour Saturday night, in which J. L. Wynn, a well-known citizen of that section of Bradford county, was shot and instantly killed by his son-in-law, Mann Robinson.

The particulars as far as could be ascertained were that the men, with a party, were drinking. They were congregated in a vacant hut near town, when a dispute arose over the question of using tobacco. It appears that Wynn, who is a non-indulgent of the weed, was reprimanding Robinson for smoking, when Robinson mischievously "whiffed" some smoke into Wynn's face, which angered him greatly.

It was stated that Wynn kicked Robinson in the abdomen and shoved him from the door, when Robinson, much provoked, proceeded home.

It appeared that Wynn must have followed Robinson to his home, for that is where the tragedy occurred.

Those who are supposed to be in a position to know state that Robinson went to his home, shortly followed by Wynn. When Wynn reached the gate, which is only a few feet from the house, Robinson, pistol in hand, warned him of the danger of approaching further into his household, but Wynn took no heed and went in, closing on Robinson and striking him a stinging blow. With this Robinson fired, the shot taking immediate effect, and Wynn fell dead at his feet.

It is stated that Robinson surrendered, a coroner's jury was impanelled, the facts in the case learned, and Robinson was released, being exonerated from all blame.

Both men are white, and are well known throughout that section, having resided there practically all their lives.

STATE UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The "Talk" to be given this week at the chapel will be by Prof. Scott of the Experiment Station. These "talks" are open to the public, who are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Sledd has just returned from a trop to Dade City and Brooksville. At both of these places he delivered an address under the auspices of the University Extension Bureau.

The "Flag-Stealing Contest" was such a success, and at the same time afforded such a good opportunity for instruction in the "school of the soldier," that it has been decided to hold a similar contest next Saturday night. Instead of flags, nowever, this time lighted lanterns will be the object of the military raids. The rules governing the contest will be approximately the same that were in force on the first occasion.

The "Florida Pennant" appeared again this week. For copies apply to C. M. Fisher.

An Interesting Lecture.

Undoubtedly the most interesting and important lecture of the season will be that delivered by Mr. Frank M. Chapman at the school auditorium, Tuesday evening, March 3. Mr. Chapman is personally well known in Gainesville, as he is the son of Mrs. M. B. Chapman, and in earlier years passed a large part of his winters here. He has achieved distinction of the first order in ornithology, and ranks as perhaps the foremost writer and lecturer on birds in the country. Mr. Ernest Seton-Thompson says of him: "Mr. Chapman is not only one of the leading ornithologists of the day—he is undoubtedly the foremost lecturer in the field. He has done more than any other man to bring the latest advances of science within reach of the public. Teachers and parents will find that Mr. Chapman's lectures will effectually turn the destructive energies of their growing boys toward an interest in the living birds, rather than in the killing of them, and this without any danger of their being repelled by open preachment."

Pupils of the high school will be admitted free of charge. For the general public there will be an admission fee of 50 cents, and it is hoped that there will be an attendance that will demonstrate Gainesville's appreciation of a lecture of the first rank, and of Mr. Chapman's generosity in donating his services. He will bring with him undoubtedly the finest collection of stereopticon pictures of birds in this country, all of them either photographs of wild birds in their haunts, or drawings by Ernest Seton-Thompson, accurately colored under Mr. Chapman's supervision.

Gainesville National Bank.

The Gainesville National Bank has a change of advertisement in this issue, which shows a most encouraging business for this young but most reliable institution. A statement showing an aggregate of nearly $605,000 when it is only seven months old, is a high compliment, not only to the bank and its conservative officers, but a compliment to the community as well.

The Gainesville National is already regarded as one of the strongest financial institutions in the State, and, under the clever management that is directing its business affairs there is no doubt but what it will grow and prosper all the time, and that its usefulness to the people will increase.

Sunday's Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in at 2:20 Sunday afternoon from Box 54, which summoned the department with the usual promptness. The fire amounted to nothing, however, being only a slight damage to a small building in the northwestern section of the city occupied by colored people. The flames were extinguished before the department arrived.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Two Nice Sales of Desirable Property Within Past Few Days.

Notwithstanding that some people are crying hard times, there seems to be little or no decrease in real estate activity, for seldom a week passes but that several deals are recorded.

Two of the most important transactions which closed the past week were country and suburban property. J. M. Cox of Alachua purchased a desirable ten-acre tract in North Gainesville, containing a comfortable home. It is understood that Mr. Cox and family will occupy the premises, and the former will engage in truck farming.

F. P. Henderson, the extensive nurseryman and peach grower of Arno, who recently purchased a home near the University, has acquired possession of a forty-acre tract of fertile land a short distance beyond Hogtown creek, on the Paradise road, which he proposes to set out in peaches. Several of the best and most hardy varieties will be set, and Mr. Henderson expects to have a fine orchard, as he says the land is particularly adapted to peach culture.

H. E. Taylor, the clever and obliging cashier of the First National Bank, nas returned from St. Petersburg, wnere he has been to attend the annual meeting of the Florida State Bankers' Association

Mr. Taylor is one of the most widely-known bankers in the State, and has always been regarded as one of the safest and most conservative. His colleagues demonstrated their high esteem at this meeting by electing him from the floor to the position of first vice-president of the association, which was indeed an honor of which he, his bank and his friends have a right to feel proud.

Mr. Taylor states that the meeting was well attended, and that a good deal of good will no doubt accrue from the convention, which represented every phase of National and State banking.

13. 120-yard hurdle race. (three-foot hurdles.)

BABY GIRL CRIED AND SCRATCHED

All the Time—Torturing Eczema Covered Her Body—Could Not Sleep—Doctor Said Sores Would Last for Years—Skin Now Clear.

CURED IN THREE MONTHS BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I take great pleasure in telling you what a great help it was for me to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for my baby niece. She was suffering from that terrible torture, eczema. It was all over her body but the worst was on her face and hands. Her hands were so bad that she could not hold anything. She cried and scratched all the time and could not sleep night or day from the scratching. I had her under the doctor's care for a year and a half and he seemed to do her no good. I took her to the best doctor in the city and he said that she would have the sores until she was six years old. But if I had depended on the doctor my baby would have lost her mind and died from the want of aid.

"I used all the remedies that everybody told me about and I tortured the child almost to death. Then I saw in the paper how Cuticura was the thing for irritating skin. I bathed her with warm water and Cuticura Soap and used the Cuticura Ointment. She was cured in three months. Now her skin is as clear and smooth as it could be. I shall recommend the use of Cuticura wherever I see the skin in bad condition. Alice L. Dowell, 4769 Easton Ave., St. Louis, Mo., May 2 and 20, 1907."

CHAS. FISH HEARD FROM.

Man Who Left Gainesville Mysteriously at His Old Illinois Home.

W. L. Goore has received information which will prove of interest to the people of this city, inasmuch as it conveys the whereabouts of Chas. Fish, the old gentleman who so suddenly and mysteriously disappeared from Gainesville a few months ago, and from whom no one was able to hear.

This information came in the nature of a letter from Mr. Fish who is again at his old home, Butler, Ill.

A few days before leaving Gainesville Mr. Fish had the misfortune to swallow a quantity of ammonia, which he mistook for some medicine, from which he suffered great agony for a time. This accident apparently unnerved him, and those familiar with him noticed his apparent indifference from that time until the time he disappeared. His Gainesville friends will learn with relief that he is back in his old home among his own people.

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me a long time. The cure was permanent."—Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, Augusta, Me.

COMMANDANT BLITCH

Asks All Members to be Present On March 20th.

To the Members of the Stonewall Camp of Confederate Veterans:

Dear Comrades: On the 20th of March you will be called together for a purely business meeting, as we have important business to attend to on that day.

I implore you to attend the meeting. The committee on by-laws is ready to report; also other committees, such as the committees on pensions and finance will make reports. The new by-laws will be adopted, so don't stay away, but come and help shape our by-laws.

I trust that no rude blast will blight or dispel our most comforting realizations. We should be a family of co-workers in a cause so great and sacred that no unharmonizing or discordant note should enter into our deliberations. Let us get together for the accomplishment of the great object to which we have pledged ourselves. Your commandant needs your co-operation and loyal support, and with this the year will yield a rich harvest of patriotic fructification. Remember that on the unit depends the success of the whole body, a fact emphasized and felt by Gen. Lee when he declared that victory depended upon the men behind the guns. We that were behind the guns, who are yet living, should perpetuate the memory of those brave men whose spirits rise like white clouds in the sky and tell us that they died for a just cause. The cause for which they fought is not a lost cause; I repudiate and condemn the phrase. They were were not fighting for the perpetuation of the principles upon which the Union was formed, but the right of local self-government. The sovereignty of the States is the seed of the Union, and is steadily growing in strength and vigor. Their struggle was for constitutional government, the cornerstone of National Union. Many who condemned the South and denounced us as rebels and traitors have raised the veil of prejudice and now accord to us the highest tribute of patriotic courage and manly devotion to the great principles upon which this government was founded. Looking back after the lapse of nearly half a century, the terrible losses sustained, on all of the red fields, from Big Bethel to Appomattox, throw a halo around a just cause which grows brighter as the years roll on, and which should nerve the heart and inflame the speech for the sovereign principles of home rule. Now, comrades, for the honor you so freely conferred upon me my warmest appreciation is given, and to the administration of your affairs my best services will always be accorded with an eye single to your interest, and with a keen sense of the responsibility that goes with the position your forbearance is asked for all mistakes, remembering that to err is human. W. M. BLITCH,

Com. of Stonewall Camp, U. C. V.

He Saw Carrie.

In mentioning the return of J. E. Wainwright from DeLand, where he went to visit his daughter, Miss Julia, and attend the reception tendered by Stetson University to John B. Stetson, Jr., The Sun omitted to mention the fact that Mr. Wainwright also had the opportunity of seeing that world-famous character, the saloon smasher and enemy of tobacco and almost everything else, Carrie Nation.

Mr. Wainwright stated that Carrie was "doing" DeLand, but that she was comparatively quiet in that town, notwithstanding that she was naturally the center of attraction, being followed by great crowds.

Carrie was selling her souvenir hatchets, and they were going like hot ginger cakes at a country fair.

It is stated that Carrie managed to dispose of $1,800 worth of these souvenir hatchets in Tampa at a quarter each. In that event, if she is comparatively successful elsewhere, it is a source of pride to be "cranky."

Tropical Orchid in Bloom.

About a year ago several tropical orchids were received from a correspondent in Trinidad. One of these produced a bloom last year. This year another specimen is producing a profusion of bloom. The species is Oncidium lanceolatum. During the sunny part of the day the perfume from this gorgeous orchid is most exquisite. The greenhouse on the horticultural grounds at the Experiment Station will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and all persons who would like to see a most beautiful tropical orchid, and get a breath of the delicate perfume, are invited to visit the greenhouse.

The New York Sun says the Federal officeholders are the linchpin of the Republican party in the South. Isn't it a fact that there is nothing to the Republican organization here but the "linchpin" and the negro?

Governor Sparks has appointed a carpenter as inspector of Nevada's new State police. His friends say, however, that it is not to be inferred from this that the Governor intends to build up a wooden force.

The Times-Union Short Talks editor says: "Winter gives a parting squeeze to his beloved lands to the north of us and we shiver a bit, but a Florida sun rises out of the Gulf stream and spring comes with the morning, riding on his beams."

The Lake City Index nominates Hon. Frank Adams for National Committeeman, and wants to know what other editors think of the nomination. So far as The Sun is concerned, Frank Adams will get the editor,s vote for anything he runs for.

About the best way to get a certain worthy official to enter the race for re-election is for certain people to continue intimating that he is afraid to announce his own candidacy. And you can rest assured that if he does go into the fight he will be a hard man to beat.

Hon. H. A. B. McKenzie, editor of The Palatka Times-Herald, has yielded to the solicitation of numerous friends and consented to stand for re-election to the Legislature. Mr. McKenzie represented the people of Putnam county ably and conscientiously during the last session, and The Sun would be pleased to see him re-elected.

Albert Williamson has the following in the last issue of his Jacksonville Floridian: "A Circuit Judge has decided that apple cider may be sold in Georgia 'with impunity.' Well, that may be all right, but if they start to selling it with Jamaica ginger instead of 'impunity,' then we may expect a revival of that dear old breakdown, 'Hell's Broke Loose in Georgia.'"

The Times-Union of last Sunday was a mammoth edition of 48 pages, being designated the "Greater Jacksonville Industrial Edition and Exposition Number." The first page was handsomely illustrated and the four sections were filled with interesting matter on subjects appropriate to the title of the edition. The Sun congratulates Editor Wilson and his staff upon the great success of the enterprise.

"The jumping off place for the United States," says The Times-Union, is now Knight's Key. The new road is wonderful and picturesque—a show in itself, a lesson in history, a dream and a fairy story. But don't you forget that from New York to San Francisco in time of need the route by the East Coast via the Panama railway shortens the line by 3,000 miles, that a line is offered for all Eastern freight and at the terminus of the Florida road steamships from China, Japan and the Philippines will first offer the weary passenger a sight of home with lines radiating in every direction from Jacksonville to his destination.

NEGROES AS JURORS.

The Times-Union of February 22nd contains an item of unusual importance to the people of Florida, especially the legal fraternity and those clothed with authority in the matter of selecting jurors, which is as follows:

"The Supreme Court of Florida has reversed the judgment of the lower court in the criminal court against I. W. Montgomery, a negro charged with embezzlement of money held by him as treasurer of a lodge of colored Knights of Pythias, and has remanded the case for further proceedings according to law.

"This is the case in which an appeal was taken on the ground that the defendant was not given a fair and impartial trial as guaranteed by the constitution, the contention being that there were no negroes on the panel drawn from the jury box and the special panel selected by the sheriff and from which a jury was secured to try the case.

"I. L. Purcell, the negro attorney, carried the case before the supreme court, and yesterday received a certified copy of the decision of the court, containing a statement of the case and the opinion of Justice Whitfield, which is concurred in by Chief Justice Shackleford and Justices Cockrell, Taylor, Hocker and Parkhill.

"After reviewing the case and the contentions made, the opinion concludes as follows:

"'While the presumption is that the officers have legally discharged their duty in selecting and summoning the jurors under statutes that do not authorize any legal discrimination, yet this is but a presumption that may be overcome by evidence to the contrary. There is uncontroverted testimony that the people of one race and color are largely in the majority of the population in the county where the court was held; that about two-thirds of the men of that race are fully qualified for jury duty; that a list of several hundred names of men selected for jury duty for the year does not contain the names of a half-dozen, if any, men of that race; that men of that race have served on the jury in the past, but that it has been a long time since men of that race have served on the jury in the court; and that the people of that race are engaged in pursuits that should improve their intellectual and moral condition. As there has been no charge in the law that would exclude men of any race from jury duty, this evidence tended to show a discrimination on account of race or color; and such uncontroverted evidence is at least sufficient to require some proof that, notwithstanding the facts in evidence, there was no discrimination on account of race or color against any person of any race in the selecting and summoning of the jurors.' (Then follows several authorities.)

"'As there was uncontroverted evidence tending to show discrimination against persons on account of race or color in the selection of jurors whose names were on the panels, sufficient to overcome the presumption in favor of the legality of the acts of the officers, the challenges interposed should have been sustained. (Then more authorities are quoted.) The judgment is reversed and the cause is remanded for further proceedings according to law.'"

THE NEW AMBASSADOR.

Baron Kogoro Takahira has returned to this country as ambassador from Japan. He succeeds Mr. Aoki who, while an estimable gentleman, did not altogether fit the position in Washington. The new ambassador reached Washington just as the battleship squadron was on the last stretch of its journey to the Pacific Coast, and the first thing that he did on landing was to explain to the assembled newspaper men that he regarded the cruise as purely an American affair and one on which Japan had no need and no right to comment. The whole tone of his interview was most friendly and cordial. He pointed out the reasons for this country and Japan continuing on a friendly basis and the reasons against their being anything but friendly. Mr. Takahira has served in this country before. He knows American ways and the position of the newspapers as disseminators if not moulders of public opinion. His statement was prepared in writing, so that there could be no mistake about it, and truly, as a friendly statement, it left nothing to be desired. No secret is made now of the fact that the relations between Japan and the United States have been severely strained by the jingo element in both countries. The governments of the two countries have always desired to be friendly. It is said now that the points of difference are nearing an adjustment. Ambassador Takahira has been sent to aid in the argeement, and it is the duty of all good American citizens to help him and to help their own government in every possible way. There is perhaps an irreconcilable difference between the white and the yellow race. This in the course of time is likely to break out into open conflict. But the time of collision is not necessarily in sight by many years, and while the Japanese may have their opinion of us, and we have our opinion of them, the easiest way to adjust differences is to take the new ambassador's statement of friendship at its face value, and let the future take care of itself. Meanwhile of course proper naval provisions are not out of order.

A LESSON FOR ADVERTISERS.

As an instance of the value of newspaper advertising to increase or force trade, the following facts are remarkable. During December the orders received by the Douglas Boot and Shoe Company of Brockton, Mass., fell off in consequence of the business depression following the panic. The advertising manager of that large concern mentioned the matter to Governor Douglas and asked his advice, whether under the circumstances they should place the usual amount of advertising during January and February, which are usually the slowest months in the year in the shoe business. Governor Douglas at once ordered an increase of 30 per cent in the amount appropriated for advertising, declaring that such an increase would help to overcome the unfavorable business outlook. There was considerable skepticism about the result among the principle employes of the Douglas company. But the result showed almost an immediate improvement in business, which is now averaging more than last year during these unusually dull months.

Thus the business sagacity of Governor Douglas has overcome the hard times, and his optimism has proven an antidote to the Republican panic.

The advertising manager of Governor Douglas explains the phenomenon of increased sales, when by all the rules of business there should have been a decrease, as entirely produced by the increased advertising. Other advertisers of shoes were drawing in their horns and many of their former customers were induced to patronize the Douglas Shoe Company because it was more than ever brought to their notice.

Persistent advertising pays, for last year nearly 8,000 newspapers carried the Douglas advertisement, and the profits of the business were larger than ever.

Congressman Frank Clark will probably have another "walk-over" in the May primary, Judge Farris of Jacksonville, who had announced his intention to make the race against him, having concluded, it is said, that it is useless to do so at this time. The Judge's "second sight" is certainly much clearer than his first, and he will save himself much time and expense by keeping out of the race. The "pee-wees" will never be able to dislodge Congressman Frank Clark in the year 1908. The man does not live in the second district, no matter how much campaign "dough" he may command, who can defeat him at this time.

ONLY ONE MEDIUM.

The Brooksville Argus, an ardent supporter of the Broward administration, correctly sums up the present situation in Florida politics as follows:

It is an anomalous state of affairs to have a party to call itself Democratic and yet have no way provided for the people to express their sentiments except through the medium of office-holders and office-seekers. Under present conditions the people are only called up to decide between contestants who shall hold the offices. That the masses may have views and wishes to express aside from their choice of office-seekers does not appear to have entered into the minds of those who devised the present system of party management.

The Apalachicola Times makes the following pertinent comment upon the Argus' statement of the case:

The Argus has not forgotten the days when the party assembled in convention and adopted a platform of principles. The adoption of the primary—a free-for-all fight in which the personality of the candidate plays an important part—has changed this condition, and there are many men who are not satisfied with the change. Primaries are expensive luxuries and frequently the poor but deserving man is debarred from office-seeking on account of the expense he must incur if he is a candidate.

Primary politics depends—not so much upon the pole that reaches for the persimmon, but upon the length of the candidate's purse, hence party principles are becoming obsolete and the dollar replaces the fundamentals of democracy.

Bros. Russell and Johnston have correctly sized up the present situation in Florida. The Democratic party of the State is without a decalogue of principles and the sole issue is "office." The State committee which met in Jacksonville on the 11th inst. should have called a State convention to nominate Presidental electors, select delegates to the National convention and adopt a platform of principles, but it is evident that the powers that be are afraid to trust delegates selected by Democrats with such matters.

One of the good things about the candidacy of General Gilchrist is that he has the newspaper instinct in him and furnishes such beautiful typewritten copy for the press. It may not be available for publication in every instance, but at least it shows him to be an up-to-date man, quick to utilize modern facilities for the spread of intelligence. General Gilchrist and his "fidus Achates," Editor Jordan of The Punta Gorda Herald, are two highly interesting figures in the pending campaign, hardly spectacular, but always attractive, and there is a charm in the utter loyalty between them almost unique in this hard, grasping age. The General and this eloquent organ are making a noble fight and if they go down in defeat, which now seems probable, it will be a spectacle to paint a moral and adorn a tale for many long years to come in Florida politics. And we are saying this in no flippant or ironical spirit, for there is really something impressive, almost ideal, in the relations of Brother Jordan and his candidate rarely seen in modern politics.—Pensacola Journal

A prominent lawyer remarked to the editor one day this week that if Ex-Governor Jennings' pleadings are correct (for which he is paid $5,000 a year from the Internal Improvement Fund), then the compromise made by the I. I. Trustees with the L. & N. Railroad Company is a damnable outrage on the people of Florida. He says the matter have been fought out in the courts and that neither the Ex-Governor or the present administration are entitled to any credit for such a compromise as they have made. The same lawyer also voiced the sentiment of a great many people in this section when he said that he thought the Ex-Governor exhibited considerable "gall" in asking the people of Florida to elect him National Committeeman, that the Democrats of Florida were doing enough for W. J. Bryan in sending a delegation to Denver to vote for him, without electing his cousin National Committeeman to "dish" out the offices in case of Mr. Bryan's election as President.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and, in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic drains, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus, and other displacements caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native, medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wrapper.

If more of the editors of Florida newspapers were possessed of the same kindly disposition as W. B. Hare of The Arcadia News the brethren would come nearer dwelling together in peace. The issue of his paper of February 21st contains an editorial under the caption of "Gentlemen, Spare the Aged," which should be carefully read by every editor in the State. It breathes the right spirit, and so far as The Sun is concerned we are glad to say that we have endeavored, as a journalist, to live up to the precepts thereof. We agree with Brother Hare that all three of the candidates for Governor are honorable men, either of whom would make the State a good chief executive, and we think none the less of those editors who are not supporting The Sun's choice—John N. C. Stockton. They have as much right to a choice as we have, and we believe they were as honest in arriving at the conclusion as to whom they would support as we were.

The money stringency cuts no ice—at least very little. The fine ice fields on the Hudson have been neglected by the companies because of the hard times.

ALACHUA COUNTY IS AWARDED BIG PRIZE

Recognized by Judges as Leading County of Middle Florida.

CREDIT TO MANAGER TENCH

It Was Almost Solely Through His Energy and Efforts That the Display Was Secured, and, Unaided and Alone, He Worked Up Fine Exhibit.

The people of Gainesville and Alachua county congratulate Fair Commissioner and Manager of Exhibits John W. Tench, through the energy of whom Alachua county was awarded a prize of $500 for having the best display of any county in Middle Florida at the State Fair. The prizes were awarded by a board of competent judges, after a most careful investigation and study, and it was decided that Alachua was entitled to the prize from this section of the State.

Manager Tench is to be all the more congratulated, by reason of the fact that he went at this venture single-handed and alone, having no financial assistance from the Board of County Commissioners, or from any public source. All who saw the exhibit, which was of principally an agricultural nature, but diversified in this line, declared before the prizes were awarded that if this display did not receive a reward it would not be because of lack of interest and hard work of those who had it in charge, nor because the exhibit was not deserving. The manager and his assistants are to be congratulated for their successful efforts in this direction, especially with no encouragement from public sources.

There were many features noticeable in the Alachua county exhibit which were conspicuous for their absence in other county displays, notably among which were the Sea Island cotton and hay. Of the latter there were a large number of bales of native-grown, embracing thirteen varieties, which attracted the admiration of visitors from every section. There were also striking displays of fruit and minerals.

The total number of points awarded Alachua on the various exhibits was 486.

In addition to the county prize of $500, Alachua county was awarded $200 for the largest and best display of agricultural products, $200 for the largest and best display of cotton, and $200 for the lagest and best display of poultry, making a total of $1,100 in county prizes. Major Tench was awarded individual prizes of $100 for the largest and best display of poultry and $100 for the largest and best display of cotton. Diplomas were also awarded with each of the prizes.

PARKER USED KNIFE.

Stabbed John Gaines in Back and Inflicted Painful Wound.

From Wednesday's Daily:

Tuesday night just before 7 o'clock the corner of West Main street south, and East Liberty street, was the scene of considerable excitement, caused by an altercation between Anthony Parker, Jr., and John Gaines, both colored, in which Gaines received a deep and painful knife wound in the back.

No one seems to know just how the row started, but it is understood that Parker stated Gaines called him a vile name, and when he started to run he stabbed him.

Gaines was taken to a physician to have his wound dressed. Parker was placed under arrest, but was released under a bond of $25 for his appearance in the mayor's court this morning.

JUDSON JOTTINGS.

Judson, February 26.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker of Newberry, have been here for a couple of days visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Tucker.

Mrs. W. H. Tucker visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Jones, near Trenton, yesterday.

The farmers have gotten their lands broken and prepared for planting, and a few have commenced planting corn, despite the cold weather. A large acreage in cotton will be planted this year.

Owing to the low prevailing prices in the market a number of the farmers are yet holding their cotton, waiting for a raise.

BAD NEGRO SHOT WOMAN IN THIGH

Mocked Woman's Dead Father, Then Inflicted Serious Wound.

THE PEOPLE WERE INDIGNANT

When They Learned the Facts in the Case, and the Negro, Tony Bosby, After Being Arrested and Placed in Micanopy Jail, Was Brought Here.

A most uncalled-for tragedy occurred at Evinston Saturday, from the result of which a colored woman, the name of whom could not be learned, lies in a critical condition at her home with an ugly bullet wound in her thigh, and the man who inflicted it, Tony Bosby, is now peeping from behind the bars of the Alachua county jail, having been brought here to save him from the wrath of the people of that section, who are indignant over the episode of the negro man.

From the information obtainable, it appears that Bosby, who was evidently under the influence of something stronger than sweetened water, went to the woman's house, uninvited, and began mocking the woman's dead father, who had some peculiarities, in a most sarcastic manner. The woman reprimanded him, it is said, when he pulled an ugly-looking gun and deliberately shot the woman, the ball entering the right thigh.

Tosby was arrested and lodged in the town jail at Micanopy, but it is said that feeling was so high in the community it was thought best to transfer him to the county prison for safe-keeping. A spirit of general indignation prevails among those who have familiarized themselves with the facts.

Bosby was brought to Gainesville in custody of Marshal Chrisman of Micanopy yesterday.

CATARRH IS CURABLE.

Successful Experiments in Abating and Curing This Disease.

Catarrh is an entirely unnecessary disease and should not be tolerated for a single day now that Hyomei is so generally known and has made so many cures in Gainesville and other towns.

Modern science has disproved the old theory that catarrh was a blood disease. It is a germ trouble, and the remedy is Hyomei, which medicates the air you breathe, killing all catarrhal germs.

As there is life and health in the air of the pine forests, filled with fragrant and healing balsams, so there is life and health in breathing Hyomei.

So sure is this prescription to cure even the worst cases of catarrh, that J. W. McCollum & Co. sell it under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

DELIGHTFUL CARD PARTY.

Mrs. Allen Haile Entertained Many Friends Washington's Birthday.

"The prettiest card party of the season" was the universal verdict of the guests who were fortunate enough to be present at Mrs. Allen Haile's on last Saturday. The date, February 22nd—Washington's birthday—gave opportunity for unique and patriotic decorations, which were taken advantage of to the fullest. A large U. S. flag, loaned by Col. A. P. Morrow, the soil and rents telling the tale of service in action, was draped across the hall, and long streamers of the red, white and blue, intertwined and festooned over walls and chandeliers, called attention at once to the fact that it was the occasion of a National holiday. A handsome portrait of Gen. Washington occupied a conspicuous position in the front room, and branches of red japonica, with masses of blue violets, were appropriate floral decorations. Flags and festoons of the National colors were everywhere in evidence.

Whist was the game and seven tables displayed as many red hatchets, while a cleft log held twenty-eight smaller weapons, whose flutter of mingled ribbons indicated their peaceful uses as score cards.

Mrs. McCollum was the fortunate winner of the prize, a pretty water-color, painted by Mrs. Tharin, one of the guests.

After a pleasant time over the card tables delicious refreshments were served, consisting of quail on toast, each bird masquerading as a small turkey, stuffed with nuts and bearing a miniature flag; celery salad with mayonnaise dressing, beaten biscuits, pickles and cheese, with coffee and whipped cream, ended a most enjoyable afternoon.

Master Allen, the four-year-old son of the hostess, in a black velvet suit, ushered in the guests, and little Miss Kitty Tharin, in rose crepe de Chine and white lace, punched for the card players.

A GUEST.

Court to Convene Today.

Hon. J. T. Wills, judge of the circuit court, arrived in the city last night, and will convene the third week of the special term of the court this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

There are only two cases left on the civil docket to be disposed of at this special term, which will require little time.

MR. LAMAR TO SPEAK.

Will Address Citizens in Gainesville on Political Issues.

Hon. W. B. Lamar, Congressman from the third district, and candidate for the United States Senate, sends the information that he will address the citizens of Gainesville and Alachua county in Gainesville on Thursday, March 5th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

Congressman Lamar will discuss the political issues of the day. He is an eloquent speaker, and will no doubt talk to a good crowd.

The public is cordially invited, and a special invitation is extended to the ladies.

The Treasury Department has made Knight's Key a sub-port of entry, and a deputy collector of customs has been appointed to go there and take charge of the customs office. The State Board of Health, the Marine Hospital Service and the Immigration Service must also send representatives there. These together with the steamship agent, express agent, telegraph operators and necessary dock laborers will make Knight's Key quite a settlement. Necessarily there will be an opening there for a good restaurant, a small store and many other things. A few years hence Knight's Key will be a city. It is in the very heart of the fishing district and it will furnish many attractions for tourists. There will, of course, be a demand for a tourist hotel, and no doubt one will be built before next season. At present preparations are being made to use one of the large houseboats to accommodate the tourists who desire to stay over there.—Key West Citizen.

A VERY IMPORTANT DECISION RENDERED.

Stock Not Permitted to Range Upon National Forests.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 20.—United States Attorney Carl Rasch of Montana has notified Gifford Pinchot, Chief of the United States Forest Service, that the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, at San Francisco, has affirmed the decision of Judge Hunt in the grazing trespass case instituted by the Government against Thomas Shannon.

No copy of the decision has yet been received by the Forest Service, but it is believed that it forbids stockmen to allow their cattle to drift upon the national forests, and that the national forests need not be fenced to prevent such drifting, although the State laws may make such fencing necessary for private lands.

In December, 1904, Shannon allowed his cattle to drift upon the Little Belt national forest in Montana. To put a stop to this suit was brought by the United States, and on March 18, 1907, Judge Hunt, in the United States circuit court for that State, rendered a decision in favor of the Government, and issued an injunction perpetually restraining Shannon frofn allowing his cattle to drift upon the forests. Montana has a fence law by which land owners must fence their lands before they can obtain redress from stockmen whose cattle, feeding upon the open field domain, range upon and injure the private lands.

Shannon's counsel argued that this State law should apply as against the United States, but Judge Hunt held that the power of Congress over the public lands, including the national forests, is complete; that Congress has lawfully delegated to the Secretary of Agriculture the authority to make regulations to protect the forest; that the Secretary had properly made a regulation that cattle must not range upon the forests without permit, and that consequently Shannon was a trespasser when he allowed his cattle to drift upon the Little Belt forest, although it was unfenced.

Shannon appealed from this decision, and as Montana is in the Ninth Federal Judicial Circuit, which embraces most of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific States, his appeal was heard by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, sitting at San Francisco. The court has now affirmed Judge Hunt's decision, and this judgment is binding upon all Federal courts in the circuit. A similar case is pending in the United States Circuit Court for Colorado, which is in the Eighth circuit.

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says:

"I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

A letter to The Gwinnett Journal, from Duncan Creek, Ga., contains a sermon in a sentence. Farmer E. V. Wood preached it:

"I made 65 bales of cotton and 1,300 bushels of corn. So I think I can pull through till another crop, if God will continue His goodness to me, whether cotton goes to 15 cents or not. I have one mule which I bought when 2 years old. She is now 28 years old, and I know she has never eaten but one feed of Western corn in twenty-six years. I have sold corn each year since 1875, except one year."

The Judge Was "Techous."

"W've got one of the techiest jestices in the country," writes a Billville correspondent. "I verily believe he'd fine a cross-eyed man fer not lookin' straight at him. Only the other day a man was before him fer fishin' in a lake which was posted.

"Why was you fishin' on them grounds?" said the jestice.

"'I wan't a-fishin' on the grounds,' said the man, 'I was fishin on the lake'.

"That answer made the jestice hoppin'-mad, an' I'm blest ef he didn't fine the feller $10 additional fer tryin' to joke with a court that was no joke!"

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

It pays to get ready for the opportunity. True it is that you may have to wait some time for the real opportunity to come; but that is far better than being forced to say: "I missed the chance of my life just because I wasn't prepared." Get ready for the opportunity, and the opportunity will soon be ready for you.

One day the president of one of our great railroads was dictating a very important address, which he had been asked to deliver on the "liability of the employer." A great many technical terms, referring especially to interstate railway legislation, were employed. The $18 per week stenographer took the whole bundle without a single inquiry.

"Now, don't get stuck, my friend," spoke up the president anxiously; "if I hand out some new ones to you just speak up, and I'll give you the correct spelling. I've no time to go over the manuscript and can't take any chances."

"I am quite familiar with every phrase you have given me so far," said the young man simply.

"How long have you been in the railroad business?"

"Since I got this job, sir."

"How in blazes did you get on all these curves I am taking you around?"

"I study railroad law at night. I know it isn't needed for my present job, but I thought the day might come when I might need it."

The president dropped his notes. He ran his hand through his iron gray hair and brought it down on the desk with a bang.

"Young man, I see that day coming!" he said with the weight of conviction.

It did not come at once, by the way, but the young man was gradually promoted to an assistant secretaryship with an excellent future in view.

Be a bigger man than your job! Then you can make the job as big as you are and command an increased salary for your work. Water cannot rise higher than its level, and if your job is too much for you, you are going to be swamped.

An official of the United States Steel Company in Pittsburg, who has directly under his supervision hundreds of young clerical men, was asked the other day whether he had all his positions filled.

"Filled! Not by a long shot! There are simply a bunch of fellows rattling around in them."

Don't rattle around in your place like a skeleton in a suit of armor. Your employer is not hiring a bundle of bones. He is paying his money for a real man and it is up to the live one to be bigger than the job—to be master of the situation at all times.

A Y. M. C. A. secretary once told me that he wanted to make his job so big that his successor would have a hard time filling it.

He strived always to develop new features, and work out original ideas in such an effective way that the job would be too big for anybody else. Evidently this man was not only equal to but greater than the problems which confronted him. He was far stronger than the man who originally held the position. He not only filled the place, but more than filled it.

After doing all that was required of him he found a volume of surplus energy which he ingenjously directed into new fields of endeavor. He conquered new worlds; but never had occasion to weep because there were no more left; for when all the worlds were conquered, he created new ones.

That kind of a man is bigger than his job and only such a one is indispensable to his employer.

The county commissioners of Baker county, at their recent meeting, rejected all bids for the erection of a court house in MacClenny. The lowest bid received was $26,000, and the board thought that the county could get along with a less expensive one. The board has contracted with an architect to get up plans for a building not to exceed $20,000.

Last week two negroes holding good jobs at the mill received letters of warning, threatening dire vengeance if they did not vacate and leave their positions open for white men. The letters were dated at Summerfield, but posted in Inverness. The negroes have been in the employ of the mill company for a number of years, giving perfect satisfaction, and they will leave nothing undone to ferret out the author of the letters and place the matter before the courts. We are inclined to think the threats made were never intended to be carried out, and that the recipients of the letters are not in danger of bodily harm as long as they behave themselves.—Citrus County Chronicle.

MOTHERS' MEETING.

That of Monday Was One of the Most Interesting.

The Mothers' meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. G. S. Merchant Monday afternoon was a very pleasant and instructive one. The pleasant parlors were filled with ladies who are interested in this grand work of trying to make home the best place in all the world, and the influence of home such as will fit the children to go out into the world with principles well formed, and the courage to dare to do right.

These meetings are also a help to the mothers and grandmothers in causing them to keep in running order the accomplishments they acquired in youth, but too often neglected by the time they are thirty, and dropped entirely before the age of fifty, feeling that hereafter their part in life is to sit with folded arms and beam on their children and grand-children as they take their places. Our program shows that the women of our "twentieth century" are not shelved when they are sixty, and even older. We first had on our program after our opening hymn and prayer a piano solo very nicely executed by Miss Merchant; a very interesting article read by Mrs. Bailey; a story by Mrs. Dr. Spencer, telling how a mother managed by tact and wisdom to get her boy to drop the pernicious habit of cigarette-smoking; a very pretty duet, well rendered by Mrs. Dr. Robb and her daughter, Mrs. J. A. McKinstry, accompanied on the piano by little Mary McKinstry, making three generations, each one doing their part well; next came a reading by Mrs. Dr. Thomas on Mother's Influence. After this we were given a piano solo by Mrs. W. F. Yocum, and as one watched this lady manipulate the keys one could scarcely believe that she had seen over sixty summers; next came a paper written by Mrs. Patterson, urging, among other things, mothers to keep ever before their boys the fact that they love them, and to tell them so. Mrs. French was presented and gave a short talk on the great responsibilities of mothers, and told a little of her own life, being left with three sons to care for and only her day's work to do it with, and how, with God's promise to the widow and fatherless to help her, she had come safely through. The last number on the program was a pretty little recitation by little Anna Dorsey, "Papa's Letter," which pleased all.

After the program Mrs. Merchant served dainty refreshments to the people and everyone pronounced the meeting one of our best.

$10,000 Given State Normal.

Athens, Ga., Feb. 25.—Library day at the State Normal school was celebrated at that institution. The exercises consisted of addresses by Mrs. E. C. McCabe, of Atlanta, Chancellor Barrow, Mrs. H. C. White of this city, and President Branson. They were presided over by Miss Mildred Shepperson, chairman of the library committee. More than five hundred books were received for the library, and a neat sum of money also; this comes through the Georgia Federation of Women's clubs. At the conclusion of the exercises it was announced that Andrew Carnegie had given $10,000 for a library building at this institution.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.
